1. A red star on a white circle and the head of a horse in harness are two identification marks seen on Soviet trucks which arrived in Burgas at the beginning of December. The head of a roebuck and a bird with outstretched wings are markings seen on some of the trucks which were in that city previously.

2. The Commanding Officer of the Bulgarian 9th Infantry Division at Pleven is General Vinarov.

The officer in charge of the Sofia Military Academy is Colonel Haji Ivanov. The political commissar is Major Grigorov.

The political commissar of the Bulgarian railway regiment in Sofia is Major Russev.

3. About the middle of November, 800 Soviet gunners and 22 large long barreled guns arrived in Varna to reinforce the coastal artillery.

On 24 November two battalions of Soviet coast artillery troops arrived in Burgas.
